

The Wizard's Homework

Subject-Verb Agreement

Directions: Complete each sentence below using an appropriate verb which agrees with the subject.

1. The peanut butter and jam sandwich looks/look delicious.
2. Neither the teachers nor the director of the school knows/know the city well.
3. The number of people who actually speaks/speak more than two languages is low.
4. Abel, there is/are a lot of news on the air now.
5. The crowd has/have assembled in front of the courthouse.
6. Some of the sugar has/have attracted an army of ants.
7. I can't decide. Both looks/look good to me.
8. Anybody in his right mind knows/know the truth.
9. The curriculum committee is/are meeting again next week.
10. Len is not the only one of the teachers who loves/love sushi.